

Christopher Flacksenburg

Independent Living Specialist

Christopher Flacksenburg joined Access Independence, Inc. October 2024, with a drive and interest in helping others. Chris has a varied work background including working with the special needs community with NW Works, the area youth at Frederick County Public Schools, and in Public Safety with the Maryland State Division of Correction. He has over 25 years of experience working with individuals with disabilities.

Chris has lived in Winchester, Virginia since 2005 and is married with two grown children. Chris and his wife grew up in New York and spent a short time in Maryland before settling in Virginia.

Chris has recently taken up travel and photography in his free time, in addition to other interests.
