

Fay Dutton

Ai Board of Directors

Artist

Self-Employed

Fay Dutton is a member of the Board of Directors of Access Independence, Inc. (Ai) since February 2021, and is a former Board member from 2000-2018. She worked extensively on the Ai Personnel Committee and assisted with updating the Policies and Procedures Manual, and Bylaws. She has frequently assisted in composing essential information for the daily existence of Ai.

Previously, Fay spent years on the Boards of the American Red Cross, Grafton Inc. Independent Living Center, and Shenandoah Valley Arts Council.

Fay has been involved in numerous art shows and received numerous awards including the Winchester Star Leadership Award, Disabled Professional Woman of the Year Award from the Pilot Club International, and the Artie Award from the Shenandoah Arts Council. Fay majored in French and English at University of Mary Washington. She has donated numerous pieces of art to various organizations in Winchester.